11. Review of Accounts. If applicant provides investment supervisory services, manages investment advisory accounts, or holds itself out as providing financial planning or some similarly termed services:

- A. Describe below the reviews and reviewers of the accounts. For reviews, include their frequency, different levels, and triggering factors. For reviewers, include the number of reviewers, their titles and functions, instructions they receive from applicant on performing reviews, and number of accounts assigned each.

Each client is different and each client's financial situation is different and special to us. Therefore, we do not believe that "one size fits all" in terms of having a pre-set service standard. Therefore, we offer the clients the opportunity to arrange for a suitable review schedule that meets their particular needs, whether it be quarterly, semi-annually or monthly. Reviewers are either competent advisors with professional industry related designations or portfolio managers. We manage as a team approach and do not assign client accounts on a per advisor basis.

- B. Describe below the nature and frequency of regular reports to clients on their accounts.

Performance reports are provided quarterly to clients and the custodian (such as Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. or Fidelity Investments) provides monthly statements as well as daily "online" account access.
